Item 7 – Appendix 1

Juris Doctor (JD)

A Juris Doctor (JD) is a professional degree in law that equips individuals with the knowledge and skills necessary to practice law. It is typically earned after three years of full-time, graduate-level study at an accredited law school following completion of a bachelor's degree. Once an individual has completed their JD, they must pass the bar exam in the state where they intend to practice law. The bar exam is a comprehensive test that assesses a candidate’s knowledge of legal concepts, analytical skills, and ability to apply the law in real-world scenarios. Additionally, prospective lawyers must meet other requirements, such as completing a character and fitness evaluation, to be admitted to the bar and become licensed to practice law. Further, most states also require periodic continuing education in order to maintain licensure.

Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination (Series 65 Exam)

The Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination (Series 65 exam) is a North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA) exam administered by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA). The exam consists of 130 scored questions. Candidates have 180 minutes to complete the exam. In order for a candidate to pass the Series 65 exam, the individual must correctly answer at least 94 of the 130 scored questions. For more information, refer to the NASAA website at: <https://www.nasaa.org/exams/>.
